Semplice collection

Moving on from st.steel Strato Semplice collection
introduces copper and black satin st.steel, noble
and symbolic materials par excellence.

The entire island, which can be easily moved within the space of any building volume, withdraws into itself in an abstract and uniform shape, thanks to a sandblasted natural shade Oak-wood covering. A covering which, by rotating offers a different worktop or, whenever the kitchen is not being used, hides the hob and stainless steel sink.

Semplice # 1
Copper
worktop in matt st. steel rotating table in natural Oak wood with copper edges

The sculptural form is accentuated by the refinement of the materials.

This sculptural monolite is outfitted with two sliding tables.

This compact parallelepiped, dynamic yet powerful, is easily adaptable to smaller or multifunctional environments.

The kitchen island is outfitted with a sliding table in wood that hides the hob and the st. steel sink and it can be easily moved whenever the kitchen is not being used.
